Jessica Springsteen Named CAVALOR Show Jumping Hall of Fame
*Rider Of The Month

Tampa, FL—April 7, 2009— The month of March was one of great importance for the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series, as it welcomed CAVALOR as its official title sponsor.

With CAVALOR's support, the Series will now be honoring one rider each month as the CAVALOR Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series Rider of the Month. The honor will go to the one rider who earns the most points on one horse in Series competition each month.

With 315 points earned in the month of March aboard her mount Vornado Van Den Hoendrik, Jessica Springsteen of Colts Neck, NJ, was named the CAVALOR Show Jumping Hall of Fame Rider of the Month. Jessica competes in the Series' East Conference junior division, and was victorious with Vornado Van Den Hoendrik during the CAVALOR Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series classes held during weeks 9 and 10 of the FTI Winter Equestrian Festival.

“We are thrilled for Jessica to be our first CAVALOR Show Jumping Hall of Fame Rider of the Month,” said Philippe Collard, President of CAVALOR, Inc. “Jessica is a great competitor, and we are looking forward to the many other riders who will join her in earning this recognition for their success while competing in the CAVALOR Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series.”

The CAVALOR Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series saw competition at six events during the month of March, and will see classes at more than 100 horse shows before the Series culminates in the Year-End Championships at the Syracuse Invitational Sporthorse Tournament featuring the 126th National Horse Show in Syracuse, NY, in October. The West Conference kicked-off with competition at the Oaks Blenheim Spring Classic I, while competition at the FTI Winter Equestrian Festival in Wellington, FL, came to a close for the 2009 season.

The Series hosts separate divisions for junior and amateur-owner riders in two Conferences—the East Conference and the West Conference. Series standings are used to help determine junior and amateur-owner entries for the National Horse Show.

In the overall standings through March, Lou Jacobs and Kachina led the amateur-owner standings in the East Conference while Victoria Birdsall and Jeremy led in the junior division. In the West, Hannah Selleck led in the amateur-owner division while Theo Boris led in the junior division.

The top three horses-and-rider combinations in each division are as follows:

Rider	Horse	Points	Hometown

CAVALOR Inc. is the exclusive North American licensee of the CAVALOR brand and the CAVALOR products from Nutriquine NV. CAVALOR Inc.'s mission is to organize and manage the distribution of CAVALOR products, promote the brand, and establish partnerships to locally manufacture the CAVALOR products, all in North America.

For over 20 years, Nutriquine NV (a Belgian company) has been a pioneer in equine nutrition. In close cooperation with veterinarians, scientists and specialists of equestrian sports, Nutriquine has developed, under the brand name CAVALOR, a complete line of supplements, care and feed products to address the diverse needs and requirements of top sport horses and breeding stables. CAVALOR products are distributed and used by many champions in 45 countries around the world.

The CAVALOR Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series is designed to give amateur-owner and junior riders an opportunity to compete at higher levels and serves as a proving ground for many riders who aspire to someday represent the United States in international competition.

The Show Jumping Hall of Fame was organized to promote the sport of show jumping and to immortalize the legends of the men, women and horses who have made great contributions to the sport. The Show Jumping Hall of Fame conducts the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series, held under Grand Prix rules and specifications. The Show Jumping Hall of Fame has moved from its long-time home at Busch Gardens in Tampa, FL. An announcement about the Museum's new home will be made later this year.

Any horse show offering a class that meets all the criteria set forth in the 2009 Show Jumping Hall of Fame Series specifications and has prize money of at least $1,000 is eligible to be part of the Series.
