Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series Kicks Off 2007 Season

Tampa, FL—February 1, 2007—The 2007 Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series is officially underway, and it promises to be even bigger and better than ever before. The Series will see classes at more than 100 horse shows across the country before culminating in Year-End Championships at the National Horse Show in Wellington, FL, in December.

The Series hosts separate divisions for junior and amateur-owner riders in two Conferences—the East Conference and the West Conference. Series standings are used to help determine junior and amateur-owner entries for the National Horse Show.

The first Show Jumping Hall of Fame Series competitions of the year were held in January at the Winter Equestrian Festival in Wellington, FL. By winning opening classes, Aimee Aron of Keswick, VA, and her mount, Jamaica, whom she co-owns with Kinloch Enterprises, took the initial lead in the junior division in the East Conference, while Katherine Miracle of Stoneville, NC, and Madonna, owned by Overlook Farm, Inc., did so in the amateur-owner division. The first event on the West Conference schedule is at the Oaks Blenheim Spring Classic I in San Juan Capistrano, CA, March 28 — April 1.

The 2007 Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series is sponsored by the Lake Placid Horse Show Association, Stadium Jumping, Inc., the 2007 Rolex FEI World Cup™ Finals in Las Vegas, Practical Horseman, and Langer Equestrian Group, Inc. The Series Leader Board appears below:

The Show Jumping Hall of Fame and Museum at Busch Gardens in Tampa, FL was established in 1987 and formally opened in 1989. It was organized to promote the sport of show jumping and to immortalize the legends of the men, women and horses who have made great contributions to the sport. The Show Jumping Hall of Fame also conducts the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series, held under Grand Prix rules and specifications.

The Series is designed to give amateur-owner and junior riders an opportunity to compete at higher levels and serves as a proving ground for many riders who aspire to someday represent the United States in international competition.

Any horse show offering a class that meets all the criteria set forth in the 2007 Show Jumping Hall of Fame Series specifications and has prize money of at least $1,000 is eligible to be part of the Series.
