JJ Torano Wins March's Show Jumping Hall of Fame Rider of the Month Award

Lexington, KY – April 14, 2026 – JJ Torano of Wellington, FL, has won the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Rider of the Month Award for March. This marks the second time he has won the award in 2026, following his record-setting 2025 season when he earned the award three times and was named the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Rider of the Year.

A talented junior rider, Torano competes in the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series' East Conference. After securing the Hall of Fame's Rider of the Month Award in January, Torano returned to the ribbons with multiple horses at Wellington International in March. He kicked off the month with second, sixth and eleventh place finishes in the $15,000 SJHOF 1.45m Junior Jumper Classic Sponsored by Karlswood at WEF 8, riding Quinci Quality, Coachella Z and Kochio Z, respectively. A week later, he bested the Classic's field at WEF 9 with BP Swifty, earned fifth place with Kochio Z, and finished twelfth with Million Amour. He kept up his winning streak in the Classics at WEF 10 (riding Coachella Z) and WEF 11 (riding BP Swifty), as well as finishing third at WEF 10 riding Dora Du Valon, fourth at WEF 11 riding Million Amour, and ninth at WEF 11 riding Kochio Z. These consistent placings helped Torano earn the Hall of Fame's Rider of the Month Award for March.

The Show Jumping Hall of Fame conducts its Jumper Classic Series with classes at approximately 80 horse shows each year.
